

HARVARD REFERENCING GUIDELINES FOR MYP – Year 6

Why do we reference?

Referencing is a way of giving credit to the people who have provided the information that you use in your work. It is a way of showing that you have done your research and that you are using reliable sources.

Referencing

When you use information from a source, you need to give credit to the source.

This is done by providing a reference for the source.

References are usually given in a list at the end of your work.

What parts of my work do I need to reference?

At Year 6, you need to reference direct quotations, which are words taken directly from a source.

When you use information from a source, you need to give credit to the source. This is done by providing a reference for the source. References are usually given in a list at the end of your work.

What types of sources need referen

2016).

Reference List

This is a list of all the references used in this assignment. The references are listed in alphabetical order of the author's name. The references are listed in the following order: books, journal articles, websites, and other sources.

Ah la a e a d f i i a l,

Book: MacLeod, J 2014 .

Website: Beate Meehl, 2015, accessed 5 March 2015, <http://www.psychology.com> .

Referencing Tips

